

ASIAN INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT & TECHNOLOGY

LIBRARY CELL

ANNUAL PLAN
(JULY 2016 - JUNE 2017)

The Library Cell, apart from ensuring smooth, effective and efficient functioning of the library, also observes certain events and occasions relevant to the world of library, literature and academics. This is done to make students aware of certain significant occasions related to the world of knowledge, to give them a chance of participating in various learning programmes like quizzes, debates, book reviews, etc., and to enhance a sense of awareness and belongingness which goes a long way to establish a warm and productive relationship between students and the library.

An annual plan (July 2016 - June 2017) to ensure the observance of such specific events have been designed- an idea of which has been given below.

July 2016:

No event. Preparation for Orientation (to be held in August).

August 2016:

12 August, Friday: Indian Library Day

A Quiz Competition on Indian Library World and Indian Literature, World will be held. Students will be also be given opportunity to exhibit their cultural talents by singing and dancing.

September 2016:

12 September, Monday: World Library Day

A speech competition will be held on the Significance of Library/
The Role of the Library since Inception. Students will be also be given opportunity to exhibit their cultural talents by singing and dancing.

October 2016:

No specific event

November 2016:

No specific event

December 2016:

No specific event

January 2017:

No specific event

February 2017:

If the British National Libraries Day is celebrated worldwide (it is not observed every year; last year it was observed after a gap of 2/3 years; so, AIMT too observed it last year), it will be observed by the Library Cell of AIMT too with Poem Recitation Competition (Poems by British Poets) and Book Review Competition (books written by British writers). The date has not been specified now. Last year, it was fixed worldwide on 6th February. Students will be also be given opportunity to exhibit their cultural talents by singing and dancing.

March 2017:

26 March, 2017, Sunday: Sahityarathi Lakshminath Bezbaruah Memorial Day

As the event falls on Sunday, the Library Cell will observe it on Saturday (25 March, 2017). A humorous story telling competition (self-written) (Assamese/ English) will be held among the students. Narration Competition of humorous stories by Lakshminath Bezbaruah will also be held. Students will be also be given opportunity to exhibit their cultural talents by singing Assamese songs composed by Lakshminath Bezbaruah.

April 2017:

23 April, 2017, Sunday: World Book Day

As the event falls on Sunday, the Library Cell will observe it on Saturday (22 April, 2017). Drawing Competition (topic: Books as our Friends) will be held among students. Book Review Competition will be held. Students will be also be given opportunity to exhibit their cultural talents by singing and dancing.

May 2017:

7 May, 2017, Sunday: Birth Anniversary of Kaviguru Rabindranath Tagore

As the event falls on Sunday, the Library Cell will observe it on Saturday (6 May, 2017). Rabindra Sangeet Competition will be held among students. Drawing competition (Tagore's portrait) will also be held. Students will be also be given opportunity to exhibit their cultural talents by dancing (preferably choreographed on Tagore's songs.)

June 2017:

No event

Apart from these events, monthly meetings (attended by the Library Cell Coordinator and the Librarians) will be held on the last Saturday of every month to discuss and resolve library-related issues.

This, in a nutshell, is the Annual Plan of the Library Cell.

Changes and recommendations are always welcome in the greater interest of the students, the library and the institute.
